Letter from
William DeVoe
Rec. June 25, 1971

June 18/1971

Dear Cousin-

I am beginning a letter that will last more like a book because I have so much to tell you and also ask you.

In the first place I do wish I had the ability of writing that you display. Arlene Fongyou can tell you I taught school one year at Wayne Center four years at Fenton.
You wouldn't guess it from my writing now.

By the way you might ask Arlene Fongyou
if she is still as proficient at writing as well as I am.

I worked one summer for Uncle Jesse on the farm. We planted some English walnuts pecans etc in the lot north of the barn.

Did they ever amount to anything?
There were two apricot trees in the orchard that caused me more than one belly ache - but they were good.

This was at the time that Uncle Jesse still owned the tile mill...

Anna Eliza

wife of

Benjamin DeVoe

Died Sept 17 1858

34 years 5 mo 25 days.

Benjamin Holmes DeVoe is not buried in Kendallville but with his second wife in a little country cemetery nearly due east of Columbus, Kansas.

I believe his second wife's name was Roseberry. I'm not sure if you write to Florence DeVoe — Uncle Frank DeVoe's daughter.

Mrs. Ennis Wixon

Columbus Kansas

P.R.

She can tell you more of Benjamin, Holmes DeVoe & second wife — probably all the children & birth dates.

I doubt if I could identify picture of Benjamin Holmes DeVoe & Anna Eliza but think perhaps Florence (Mrs. Ennis Wixon) could.

I worked one summer for Doyle's father Claude on the farm north of where you lived. I imagine that was where Lewis & Doyle both were born. I think they called it the Pepine farm?

A year ago we were down to Bea's family reunion in Albion. We stayed all night in motel in Kendallville. Went out in the evening and called on Mort Wible. + had a good chat w Mort + family

It was too late then to call on Longyears but chat we would do so Sunday morning before going to reunion

Bea didn't feel well next morning so I went out alone - Longyears were gone. I went over and stopped at your place - nobody at home.

I wanted to visit the old cemetery there and did so. Perhaps you did not know that father + mother's 1st child - a girl - died at birth and was buried there near the north fence and about 1/3 way from East fence to west fence or nearly west of a Swogger (just I believe) monument. I took pictures but it was too dark to be any good.

I found a Seymour Stanton monument just to right inside the gate. We knew a Seymour Stanton (nephew) I believe he was a brother + your grand mother - Addie Devoe. If so this monument must be Aunt Addie's father?

Some one from N. Hills - It may have been Arlene Longyear told me of a David Devoe

1553 McPherson Drive New Haven Ind 46774
I wrote him once and got reply He was a son of Wilson Devoe of Indianapolis Wilson's mother died when he was born. + he went to Indianapolis to live with his grand mother an orphan boy Ned. lived with father and mother until he was 17 or 18 yrs old. Wilson Devoe did work for Uncle Jesse at the tele mill
This is enough book for once. When we get to Knills we'll come call on you - you folks do the same here
Sincerely
M. Devoe

family genealogy always has been interest-to me altho I never spent much time on it.
Bro Herbert DeVoe did quite a bit of such work and now his daughter Helen is quite interested in some I know she would be glad to hear from you - Mrs Helen (DeVoe) Roseboelt - Dr

11411 Linden

Plymouth Mich 48170

The DeWannx story with the coat of arms sounds very interesting - Perhaps some day I can get one in my possession

If you have the Jacob Fongyear history you know the relation between the DeVoes & the Fongyears.

Yes we have visited the cemetery in Ind nearly every year. I had quite a serious operation in January and am still unable to travel that far so we missed this year He went to Anna Eliza's grave several years with father and nearly every year since father died.

The grave is some 20 ft from the south fence and about 40-50 ft from the west fence along the R & D tracks

There was a thin tall tombstone that fell & I stood up several times. Then I laid it down flat - inscription up with some cement under it.

Twyla J. Speer, Notary Public.

Pleasant, Iowa, February 12, 1882, at the advanced age of 84 years. The mother died six years later, at the same age. He was a wagon-maker, having learned the trade in Ohio, and followed it all his life, always doing honest, conscientious work for his customers.

Mr. Pixley's grandfather was a native of Massachusetts; and his great-great grandfather was a native of Scotland, who upon coming to America first settled in Massachusetts and later moved to Ohio.

Mr. Pixley is a man of wide knowledge of affairs, owing to the diversified character of his business career. He is courteous and agreeable in his dealings and these characteristics together with his strict integrity, are qualities that have brought to him a most flattering trade. He holds a secure place in the hearts of the citizens of Scammon and Cherokee County.

THOMAS E. DE VOE, one of the successful agriculturists of Cherokee County, owns a farm of 400 acres in sections 21 and 23, township 33, range 24, in Crawford township. He was born in 1867, in Noble County, Indiana, and is a son of Benjamin H. and Mary J. (Rosenbury) De Voe.

Benjamin H. De Voe was born in Wayne County, New York, November 14, 1826, and is a son of Jesse and Martha (Van Fleet) De Voe, also natives of New York, where they died, having reared five children. Mr. De Voe was raised on a farm in New York, and obtained a common-school education. In 1857 he moved to Noble County, Indiana, where he remained until 1878. Then he came to Cherokee County, Kansas, and located on his present farm, the northeast quarter of section 28, in Crawford township, which he purchased from Henry Miller, who had bought it from an early pioneer. Mr. De Voe has been a large and successful farmer, but now rents his land. He first married Ann Eliza Longyar, of New York, who died in 1858 in Indiana, leaving five children, viz: Mrs. Sarah Hall, of Cherokee County; Jesse, a farmer and tile manufacturer of Indiana; William, a farmer of Indiana; Albert, a resident of New York; and Eloise, who died about two years ago, in Cherokee County. He is now aged 40 years. (arrived 1906)

In 1859, Benjamin H. De Voe married, for his second wife, Mary J. Rosenbury, of Indiana, who is a daughter of Andrew and Justina (Metland) Rosenbury. She was born in 1841, in Ohio, and accompanied her parents to Indiana, where they died in 1892. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. De Voe have six children, viz: Stephen, who is engaged in the poultry business at Long Beach, California; Mrs. Hattie Capron, of Crawford township; Thomas E.; Mrs. Tena Coe, of Fort Scott, Kansas; Mrs. Lottie Gager, of Joplin, Missouri; and Frank, of Crawford township.

The subject of this sketch was 11 years of age when he came to Cherokee County, where he was mainly reared and where he attended the common schools. He spent the period between 1887 and 1890 in California, and then returned to Cherokee County, purchasing his present excellent farm in 1895. He has improved his property and has it under a good state of cultivation. He raises hay as a specialty, but meets with good success in all lines.

Mr. De Voe married Cassie Row, who was born in Owen County, Indiana, in 1872, and is a daughter of Jesse A. and Hannah (Niece) Row. Mrs. Row died in Cherokee County, March 5, 1883, aged 41 years. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Row were as follows: Lovina, wife of Warren E. Kale, who lives in the State of Washington; Ida, wife of A. Auman, who resides in Spring Valley township, Cherokee County; Chapman, who resides in South McAlester, Indian Territory; Lewis, deceased, who left a family, that lives in Columbus; Mary, wife of Rainy Kyler, who lives in Monett, Missouri; Grace, who became Mrs. De Voe, Abam, who lives in Waverly; Nora, wife of Milton S. Porter, who lives in Joplin, Missouri; and Anna, wife of Jack Graham, who lives in Leola, Ark. Kansas. The second daughter of Mr. Row was to Sarah Holland, and they have two children; Anna, wife of Calvin Card, of Galena, Kansas; and Lena, who is at home. Mr. Row, for two terms, was assessor of Lyon township, where he resided from 1879 to 1890, when he removed to his present home, in Barton County, Missouri. He was born April 21, 1842, in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, and removed to Indiana in 1851, and to Cherokee County, first, in 1867. He returned to Indiana, in 1870, but came back to Kansas in 1879.

Mr. and Mrs. De Voe have three children. —Clyde E., born January 5, 1894; Ralph C., born February 5, 1898; and Evan, born May 13, 1902.

In politics, Mr. De Voe is a Populist and his father votes independently. The family is well known in Crawford township and the townships adjoining, and all belong to the county's contingent of substantial citizens.

JOSEPH WALLACE, city engineer of Galena, and one of the oldest and most highly esteemed residents of Cherokee County, whose portrait accompanies this sketch, was born March 28, 1833, in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. After taking the common-school branches, he became a student in Ohio University and later in Mount Union College. This was followed by several years of teaching. Most of these were spent in Ohio, but he was one of the first to engage in pedagogy in Kansas, and taught the first school in his county. He also taught in Illinois, and during one winter had charge of the Freedmen's University at Galena, Kansas, a school for colored people. When the Civil War began, he was among the first to offer going to the front with Company D, 18th Reg., Ohio Vol. Inf. Regiment, he was honorably discharged at Vicksburg, Miss., and returned to his native Ohio, where he remained until he moved to Kansas, locating in Cherokee County in 1867, since which time he has been one of the county's most enterprising and valuable citizens, zealous of her improvement and always ready to assist in her advancement.

Mr. Wallace settled on a claim six miles north of Baxter Springs when few cabins were to be found on the surrounding prairie and at a time when our "necessities of life" would have been esteemed as luxuries, but the pioneer was not easily daunted and expected to make his way in spite of privations and hardships, and it was this spirit of grit and endurance which he reckoned the great West from the hordes of savages and wild beasts and made it the pride of our American civilization. Mr. Wallace is a man of action and at once became identified with the leading men of his chosen State. In 1869 he was elected surveyor and has spent almost 30 years of his life in that employment, eight as a deputy and 20 as chief surveyor. In 1892 he moved to Columbus and in 1894 located in Galena, where he now resides. Here he became associated in business with W. H. Duncan, of Hutchinson, Kansas, under the firm name of Wallace & Duncan, and enjoys all of his old time popularity and prosperity. He is the present efficient engineer of Galena, with headquarters at the city hall, and the capable manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office have won him general commendation. He is also interested in mining operations.
